

Proclamation of the Mayor of the City of Lemoore
In Recognition of:

The Week of the Young Child

Whereas, the West Hills Community College Child Development Center, Kings Community Action Organization, and other local organizations, in conjunction with the National Association for the Education of Young Children, are celebrating the Week of the Young Child, April 22nd through April 28th; and,

Whereas, by calling attention to the need for high-quality early childhood services for all children and families within our community and state, these groups hope to improve the quality and availability of such services; and,

Whereas, the future of our community and state depends on the quality of early childhood experiences provided to your children today; and,

Whereas, high-quality early childhood services represent a worthy commitment to our children's future; and,

Whereas, parents are primarily responsible for their children's development and their involvement is an indispensable ingredient towards ensuring the successful development of their children and are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities afforded them within the community in support of these goals.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the City Council of the City of Lemoore does hereby proclaim April 22nd through April 28th, 2007 as the Week of the Young Child and does further urge all citizens to recognize and support the needs of your children in our community and state.

In Witness Whereof, I John Murray, Mayor of the City of Lemoore, have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 17th day of April, 2007.

John F. Murray, Mayor
