- Your Financial Responsibilities – Introduction to Finance
- Policy Role in Land Use Planning
- Effective Advocacy, Resources and Key City Issues

Open to any elected official from the South San Joaquin Valley Division. This is a local, one-day version of the annual multi-day statewide event. It is designed to orient new elected officials or as a refresher for seasoned officials. Registration information will be available via the SSJVD Website, email and fax once details of the event have been finalized. We hope for this to become an annual event for those elected officials who can't attend the statewide event.

For questions, or to confirm your interest in attending, please contact Hilary Baird at 661-428-7807 or hbaird@cacities.org
